Mr. Victor H. Green, Publisher
The Negro Motorist Green Book
938 St. Nicholas Ave.
New York, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

I am proud of your "Green Book" and consider it a great little motorist guide. After receiving a copy I only wished that I had one with me on a recent trip I made, as I am sure that it would have made the entire vacation perfect.

The Green Book not only serves the Negro motorist and tourist well, but does a splendid job for its advertisers.

With all good wishes, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

William H. Denkins, Jr.

INTRODUCTION

The idea of "The Green Book" is to give the Motorist and Tourist a Guide not only of the Hotels and Tourist Homes in all of the large cities, but other classifications that will be found useful wherever he may be. Also facts and information that the Negro Motorist can use and depend upon.

There are thousands of places that the public doesn't know about and aren't listed. Perhaps you might know of some? If so send in their names and addresses and the kind of business, so that we might pass it along to the rest of your fellow Motorists.

You will find it handy on your travels, whether at home or in some other state, and is up to date. Each year we are compiling new lists as some of these places move, or go out of business and new business places are started giving added employment to members of our race.

When you are traveling mention "The Green Book" so as to let these people know just how you found out about their place of business. If they haven't heard about This Guide, tell them to get in touch with us.

If this Guide is useful, let us know, if not tell us also, as we appreciate your criticisms.

If any errors are found, kindly notify the publishers so that they can be corrected in the next issue.

Published yearly in the month of April by Victor H. Green.

CARD OF APPRECIATION

The Publishers of this guide wish to publically thank the following people and newspapers who have contributed and worked to bring this Travel Guide before the public and up to date, so that we as a race might have something authentic to travel by and to make traveling better for the Negro.

Mr. James (Billboard) Jackson—Special Rept. of the Standard Oil.
Mr. Chas. A. R. McDowell—of The United States Travel Bureau.
Mr. John D. Long—of New York City, N. Y.
Mr. Elmer Jackson—of Kansas City, Mo.
Mrs. Ella Glenn—of Springfield, Ohio.
The Louisville Leader—of Louisville, Ky.
The Cleveland Call & Post—of Cleveland, Ohio.
The Western Ideal—Pueblo, Colo.
The Waco Messenger—Waco, Texas.

We hope that you in reading this will tell others about this guide so that they will know of its usefulness.

We have given you a selection of listings that you might chose from, under no circumstances do these listings imply that the place is recommended.

EXPLANATION

No travel guide is complete with the multitude of business places that are unheard of. The principal value is its completeness for which reason we are endeavoring to make this guide actually the most complete possible.

The business classifications listed have been arranged under the different cities and towns, so that one won't have any trouble finding what they want.

POINTS OF INTEREST IN NEW YORK CITY

THE EMPIRE STATE BUILDING is the tallest office building in the world and is situated at 5th Avenue between 33rd and 34th Streets. The site is nearly 2 acres and rises 102 stories above the ground and is 2 stories under the ground. It houses more than 25,000 tenants. Its elevators rise at the tremendous speed of 200 feet per second. While its express cars carry one to the 80th floor in one minute.

ELLIS ISLAND is the first landing place of the immigrant and is located in the upper bay of New York harbor. This island may be visited by securing a pass from the Commissioner of Immigration.

CATHEDRAL OF ST. JOHN THE DIVINE, located at Amsterdam Avenue, 110th to 113th Streets, is America's greatest church edifice. When completed it will be the largest Gothic Cathedral in the world. The seating capacity is 15,000 and room for 40,000 standing. It has been in the building for the last 61 years the corner stone being laid in 1892. Visitors are always welcome and services are held practically all day.

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON BRIDGE, over the Hudson River, is the longest suspension bridge in the East, connecting New York City at 179th Street and Fort Lee, N. J. It is used by millions of people annually, and is the Northern route to motorists going South from the North. Its towers, which stand 80 feet higher than the Washington Monument can be seen for miles around. The New York tower has the "Will Rogers Memorial Beacon," which serves as a guide to aviators.

THE THEATRICAL DISTRICT OF NEW YORK, where all of the largest and best plays are staged and produced, is located in the heart of the city. Here you will find the largest and best showhouses in the world from 39th to 52nd Streets and 8th to 6th Ave.

The colored show houses are located in Harlem: The Lafayette at 7th and 132nd Street; a W. P. A. house and the Apollo at 125th near 8th Avenue are the largest.

THE GENERAL POST OFFICE is the largest post office in the world. It covers 2 city blocks from 31st Street to 33rd and from 8th to 9th Avenue. It houses 18,000 employees, makes 26 collections and 3 to 4 deliveries a day.

THE HOLLAND TUNNEL is the busiest vehicular tunnel in the world. Starts at Canal Street in New York and ends at 12th Street, Jersey City, N. J. This tunnel contains 2 tubes: one for West bound and the other for East bound traffic; each 2 tubes wide. The toll is 50c per car.

THE TRI-BOROUGH BRIDGE, which connects three of the boroughs of Greater New York (Manhattan, Bronx, Queens). This bridge is 17½ miles long and is the most direct route to the New York World's Fair. The toll charge is 25c.

CHINATOWN, at the Bowery and Chatham Square, is New York's Oriental section. Sight seeing busses will take visitors there from Times Square. Showing the Bloody Corner at Pell and Mott Streets which has been the place of countless murders caused by the rivalry of the Leong and Hip Sing Tong.

THE HAYDEN PLANETARIUM, which is located in the American Museum of Natural History at 81st Street and Central Park West can be seen "The Drama of the Skies." The most interesting feature of the Planetarium is the "Hall of the Sun," which shows the Solar System. There are six performances daily starting at 11 A. M. except Sunday and holidays. On these days the show starts at 10 A. M. The admission is 25c, 11 to 5 o'clock; evenings 8:30, 35c; 25c at 5 P. M. Saturday, Sunday and holidays. Children under 17 years of age 15c at all times. Reserved seats 50c and 60c.

ROCKEFELLER CENTER largest building project ever undertaken by private capital. Is situated between 5th and 6th Avenue at 48th and 51st Streets, and occupies 12 acres. The tallest building in the group is the R. C. A. Building and is 70 stories tall and houses the National Broadcasting Co. On the West of Rockefeller Center is the Radio City Music Hall R. K. O. Building R. C. A. Building west and the Center Theatre, also Radio City which is named in honor of the Radio Corporation of America. On the Fifth Avenue side will be found the Le Maison Francaise, British Empire Building, Italian Building and the six story extension of the International Building.

A CANADIAN TRIP

By

BAXTER F. JACKSON

It was Sunday early in July that we left the city with the voices of the Southernaires coming in over the car's radio. We struck out on the West side Drive and passing across the Hendrick Hudson Toll Bridge the long ribbon-like road stretched before us and the surrounding territory assured us that we were getting into open country at last. The fine weather, the sun pleasantly warm and the breezes kind made motoring with the top down something well worth all the sacrifices of the past year.

To attempt to describe New England with its pretty farm houses and white birches is something for a greater master of description than yours truly.

We rolled along without any event until the urge for food stopped us about 6 P.M. After a tasty meal we moved along until about 9 P.M. which time found us in Hanover, N. H. Without any trouble we found a place that fitted our budget and went to sleep in a pleasant room with twin beds and a shower. The place was fine and we needed the two blankets.

The next morning we went about seeing the Dartmouth College Campus and the Town, sending a few postcards to mark the progress of the trip.

Our next stop was in Derby Line, a little village in Vermont, to pick up some films, as a result of packing too hurriedly. Next came the Canadian border and customs declarations. The process was simple and in a short time we were on our way. On seeing the fine road in front of us we began to make a mental calculation as to how long it would take us to get into Quebec. However, the road being a back one which was our choice to avoid traffic, succeeded in accomplishing just that but left much to be desired as a road; however, we pulled out of the bad spots soon enough and with the motor singing and the radio doing the same in French and English and with the pure air and sunshine we soon forgot about the bad stretch of roadway and promptly settled down to almost run out of gas which brought us face to face with the "Imperial Gallon". We learned we needed less of this than the U. S. kind but as we did not speak enough French it cost us a little spilled gas, and as this was sort of a back road the people did not speak English "too much".

We reached Levis about 5:30 P.M. and crossed on the Ferry to Quebec by about 6:30. We found a nice hotel and bathed and dressed,—then we were on our way to the Chateau Frontenac for dinner by 8:30. Finding the dining room closed, we went into the grill and had a delicious meal served overlooking Dufferin Terrace. After dinner we strolled along to see what the Town had to offer.

The next day we made an early start, picked up the car and hired one of the chauffeur-guides to take us around. These chauffeur-guides are licensed by the Province and are thoroughly capable in every respect. They gave us a history lesson that will be well remembered. I believe I learned much more about Quebec than any other town I have visited. There are so many things that are different and quaint,—it is a worthwhile place to visit. Everywhere the people were most courteous to us. If we asked a question and we were not understood (which was seldom), they would not leave us until they definitely found out what was wanted. On one occasion I was taken a block out of the way by a young man to a police officer who then directed me where I wanted to go. When offered a reward for his kindness he refused and thanked me for asking him and went about his way,—it seemed as if he was doing his civic duty. (P.S. He did accept an American cigarette though, as they are popular there. If you have been there you know why,—if not, ask someone).

We next turned homeward with our Hudson Bay blankets and other knick-knacks that we had bought,—and Oh Yes, save those sales slips as you can bring back into the U. S. one hundred dollars worth of duty free goods, but not having a loose hundred dollars you can see I had nothing to worry about. However it is still the best way to beat an argument if any. We reached the customs at Jackman, Maine and went through with no trouble.

Coming into the State of Maine we moved along the Pine Tree trail. It is as beautiful a bit of forest-land as can be seen anywhere and enough to hold your interest thoroughly.

Evening brought us to our day's destination,—a little cottage on the road to Bar Harbor. A good night's rest made us ready and eager to eat almost anything including the tablecloth. The meal was excellent and I do remember the good whole milk and lovely rich cream. Our hostess explained that her husband ran a dairy. She was proud of her farm-products, and justly so.

Our purpose in going to Bar Harbor was to ascend Mt. Cadillac some 1532 Feet high. We had a perfect day for the view was clear and I made so many "filter shots" that I thought in the end my film would look like a meteorological survey but it came out well enough and the filters just cut the haze enough to make a clear film. The tourists we met were pleasant and easy talkers. We exchanged views on many interesting subjects. Pleasant as it was we had to leave to continue our journey to Old Orchard our next stop. We made a mistake in the road and came in on the wrong side of town and got tied up in a race track crowd,—reminded me of Fifth Avenue. We arrived, notwithstanding, in time for dinner. We then went out on the boardwalk, had a pleasant stroll and enjoyed some of the amusements that were offered.

The next morning we drove to a tourist camp that we had passed on the way, known as the Danish Village. The architecture had impressed me and I thought it would look good on film. The houses or cabins were built as they are in Denmark, with the crooked windows and doors, and with names over each house to give the impression that such people as Hans Christian Anderson and other famous Danes were letting you their homes for the night. It is a swell idea and thhe place seemed to make you feel that you were not in the good old U. S. A., at least until you looked at the roadway that passed close by.

Back in Old Orchard my companion, a venturesome young man, decided to go for a swim and tried to encourage me to accompany him but I am not of the hardy sort and decided against it but did go down to the beach with him. After a dip and a few strokes he decided that there was something in my point of view and that he would save his swimming for later in the summer.

After two pleasant days here we were on our way to Portsmouth, N. H., arriving there in a few hours. Spent a short time looking for the address where we were to stop. We rolled up to Mrs. Blank's home where we met some friends who came in from New York and were just starting their vacation. There is a quiet restful calm about the place that puts you in the mood for enjoying a rest, and if a man digs his grave with his teeth, as I have been told, I hope I can dig mine with Mrs. Blank's cooking. In the evening it was nice to sit around and talk to Mr. Blank who had spent some of his younger years in the Navy. I can assure you that you cannot lend your ear to a more absorbing story-teller.

The days passed there all too rapidly and before we knew it we were on our way home, and so to save for another year and I hope a longer and as pleasant a vacation.
