PREPARDNESS

An old but true addage "An Ounce of Prevention is worth more than a Pound of Cure."

Many motorist who use their cars daily for local routine with never any trouble, fail to realize that a car that appears to work well under local needs may be quite unfit to undertake the grueling of a long distance trip. Minor faults remain unnoticed through months of ordinary driving, but when the car is called upon to work at maximum power over long periods of time and distance, these small and minor faults develop into major difficulties and detract the fun and enjoyment from motoring. A successful and enjoyable motor trip depends mostly on a well groomed car.

Both safety and pleasure are at stake when a motorist starts on a trip before the car has been thoroughly checked and the faults removed. The first thing to be certain about are the brakes and the steering apparatus. Most mishaps are caused by bad brakes and defective steering. In most cases simple adjustments are only necessary to remove this evil. Next, be sure you have good tires. Good tires insures safety. Your best tires should always be on the front wheels. By doing this you reduce the chance of front tire trouble which means more dependable control. Good and proper lighting comes next. Make sure you have good bulbs and your headlight beams properly adjusted. Carry a spare set of bulbs and fuses. A good windshield wiper adds comfort and safety. Wiper blades are inexpensive but very valuable in a rain storm.

Nothing is more of a killjoy when the motor starts to spit and pop and then stops. To overcome this and add comfort and uninterrupted pleasure; everything should be done to prevent these enforced halts. A motor tune-up is the solution. This checkup when done properly will remove the hidden evils, and will allow your motor to perform at its maximum efficiency.

The proper tune-up should consist of:

1. Complete Ignition inspection, which includes Lighting and Engine Wiring, Sparkplugs, Distributor Points, Generator, Starter, Condenser, Coil, and Timing.
2. Carbureation, which includes, Carbureator Cleaning and adjustments and Engine Valve adjustment.
3. Timing Chain and Fan Belt adjustments; and a general tightening up throughout.

Last but not least is Lubrication. A complete change of lubricants in the Crankcase, Transmission and Rear Axel is recommended and a thorough greasing of the Chassis. Insist that the Lubricants used are those recommended by the manufacturer of your car. Accept no substitutes. Shock Absorbers should not be overlooked as they are subject to severe use on long trips. Have them filled and adjusted.

So when we say let's go places; be prepared before you start and more than likely you will have a pleasant and enjoyable trip with no regrets when you return.

DIVIDENDS

The average person buying a new car is eager to find out if the car is capable of doing the things they have been told it will do.. Don't allow your anxiety to cause you to disregard the caution given by the manufacturer.

The breaking in of a new car is the most important factor in determining its future performance. The greatest care and strict compliance with the instructions given with the car must be adhered to.

Be patient during the first thousand miles of operation and you will later save expense and this money saved will be the dividends on your new car investment.

HOW TO KEEP FROM GROWING OLD

Always race with locomotive to crossings. Engineers like it; it breaks the monotony of their jobs.

Always pass the car ahead on curves or turns. Don't use horn, it may unnerve the fellow and cause him to turn out too far.

Demand half the road—the middle half. Insist on your rights.

Always speed; it shows them you are a man of pep even tho an amateur driver.

Never stop, look or listen at railroad crossings. It consumes time.

Always lock your brakes when skidding. It makes the job more artistic.

In sloppy weather drive close to pedestrians. Dry cleaners appreciate this.

Never look around when you back up; there is never anything behind you.

Drive confidently, just as tho there were not eighteen million other cars in service.
