FOREWORD

Millions of people hit the road each year, to get away from their old surroundings, to see and learn how people live, and meet new and old friends.

Modern travel has given millions of people an opportunity to see the wonders of the world. Thousands and thousands of dollars are spent each year on various modes of transportation. Money spent in this manner brings added revenue to tradesmen throughout the country.

The White traveler has had no difficulty in getting accommodations, but with the Negro it has been different. He, before the advent of a Negro travel guide, had to depend on word of mouth, and many times accommodations were not available.

Now things are different. The Negro traveler can depend on the "GREEN BOOK" for all the information he wants, and has a wide selection to choose from. Hence this guide has made traveling more popular, without encountering embarrassing situations.

We appreciate letters from the public telling us about places that are not listed in the "GREEN BOOK." We also welcome your comments and opinions. We are now and shall always continue to be interested in your welfare. Your co-operation will enable us to reach the summit of our goal and further our efforts in giving "ASSURED PROTECTION FOR THE NEGRO TRAVELER."

★ Denotes The Negro Travelers' Green Book recommended Hotel, Motels, Tourist Homes, etc.

(Omission of ★ does not necessarily mean inferior accommodations.)

The publishers make every effort to assure the accuracy of the "Green Book" editorial information, and to maintain the high character of its advertising pages. We cannot however, accept responsibility for inaccuracies in editorial or advertising matter. Where rates are quoted, they are subject to change.

STREET IN KINGSTON, JAMAICA

"Having a Wonderful Time"

by Novera Dashiell

THE EAST HARBOUR AT PORT ANTONIO

on Jamaica's fascinating lovely northeastern coast. (The lighthouse is Folly Point Light.)

Before going any further, may we take this opportunity to thank all our readers for the success of the celebration of our 20th Anniversary. We, the Editor Mr. Green and the staff are grateful for the overwhelming response in forms of wires, letters and phone calls. We would have preferred to reply to each as were received, but it would have been a monumental task. We can only pledge, with your continued support to do our best this year to please you.

At the time of going to press the tense world affairs still smolder. It is fervently hoped the situation will not get worse, curtailing the great boom of foreign travel. Until the fear of war eases, we trust you will use your discretion in limiting your itinerary to the South American and West Indian areas.

Uncle Sam has lifted the 10 per cent transportation tax on all travel to the West Indies, Mexico, Central America, Canada, Hawaii and Alaska. The hoteliers and moteliers across this land and abroad are courting you more than ever this season. Certain railroads have added what they term their 'secret weapon'—the Slumbercoach—to lure the long-haul coach passenger from the tourist class airplanes and buses. Each Slumbercoach has its own wash basin and toilet, air conditioning and heat control. Seasoned travelers will appreciate the fact that the plumbing functions with the bed horizontal.

COLUMBUS CATHEDRAL HAVANA, CUBA

The Cathedral of Saint Christopher or Columbus Cathedral, is the most notable of all the colonial churches in Havana. It is a good example of Spanish architecture. In a niche near the High Altar, the remains of Columbus rested from 1792 to 1898, when they were taken to Spain.

Federation of practically all the British colonial possessions in the West Indies this year is expected to aid the tourist trade by the standardization of currency and customs. The future pattern of travel from the eastern part of the U. S. will be by air. Once there you will island-hop on the luxury cruise ships plying the Caribbean.

Jamaican tourist program has been aimed at the middle income group who take a holiday in the summer. Besides the other attractions offered, there are golf and tennis tournaments in which you may participate. There are many legends the old people will recall to you. The fabulous Maroon Town, whose inhabitants are descendants of tribes who refused to become slaves after being brought to the island by traders. Their colorful dress and habits make them a distinctive group. The White Witch of Rose Hall in St. James, a city about eight miles from Montego Bay. Legend has it that the former owner, Annie Palmer, who murdered two of her husbands, still haunts the former mansion. It is also said Cane River issues a whistling sound whenever anyone is drowned in its waters. Notorious Mona Hall. The Botanical Gardens in St. Andrews. The ancient Cathedral in Spanish Town and other Latin landmarks evidence of the early days of Spanish rule. The street vendors with tempting savories such as hot meat pies, with booby eggs with an epicurean sauce; ice cold coconut water served in the shell with a straw.

MAHOGANY

Visit Trinidad's famed Aripo caves, haunts of the eerie oil birds. The Caroni Swamp Bird Sanctuary which attracts swarms of the blood red Scarlet Ibis. Their dazzling plumage splashing the evening skies as they fly homeward. Egrets, herons, bitterns and other exotic birds shelter in this Sanctuary.

So you don't want to knock three times and say Joe sent you? Well Cuba, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands offer the gaming tables of the plush casinos, in the typical Hollywood setting of blue skies, seas and palms. Besides the tables there is pool betting in San Juan. The electronic brains of Univac computers help your flirtations with Lady Luck at the new El Commandante race track. To win the pool the bettors must come closest to picking the winner for six consecutive races. Payoffs depend on how much has been paid into the pool from combination cards and the number of winners there are.

The petit-four of your Caribbean ventures should be Haiti. Individualistic fun-loving Haiti; its tremendously rich folklore tradition offers a wealth of exotic memories to the visitor. Its French-American culture can be enjoyed all year-round. It is a shoppers' paradise, such items as German cameras, Swedish crystals, French gloves and even British bone china can be bought cheaply. Local products—the famous mahogany pieces and sisal wares. Hand wrought jewelry by skilled craftsmen, including our own Wini Mason.

Wishing you all a bon voyage. Hope you have a wonderful time. Wish we were there.
